

Teenage Parent High School School Site Council Bylaws

Article I. PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy of the School Site Council shall be to implement the mission of the Teenage Parent High School community. This shall be accomplished through the cooperative efforts of school personnel, parents, students, and community members. The Teenage Parent High School Site Council shall support TAP High School efforts to provide successful experiences for every student, support for each student's positive pre-natal and parenting time and connections with student and child families. We recognize that each student is unique and should be given opportunities to develop and experience a wide range of intellectual, cultural, social, recreational, and civic interests so that each may become a productive and responsible member of society.

Article II. MISSION STATEMENT

To prepare students for future success by:

- Promoting academic achievement through flexible schedules, small class sizes, tutoring, credit recovery and credit acceleration;
- Providing a nurturing community through support groups, local social services and agencies, school activities, family involvement and strong student-staff rapport;
- Developing responsible parenting through prenatal instruction, Early Childhood Education (ECE), parenting classes, hands-on guided nursery experience, nutrition and health support.

Our goal is to teach adolescents responsibility, positive relationships, parenting skills, and to ensure they are career and/or college ready.
